

Where do they live?

Dragons are rumored to live in rugged, untamed places like mountain tops, deep ocean bottoms, or ruined, abandoned castles, often surrounded by jewels and treasure.

Scan to learn how to build the dragon and for more creative inspiration!

Dragon

Draconis

Dragons are mythical reptilian creatures and often with a variety of predatory features, such as claws, wings, scales, or horns.

Dragons have a lifespan of over 1,200 years.

What do they look like?

30' - 150'

Fun Facts!

- created to guard treasure
- In early dragon literature, before flying became popular, dragons would drop out of trees onto people's heads

What do they eat?

Dragons are carnivores that feed on livestock, such as sheep and cows, deer, and other large herbivores. Many dragons prefer to cook their meat by breathing fire on it.

