

Where do they live?

Unicorns are elusive creatures, primarily living in deep, enchanted forests, quiet woodlands and magical locations far from human contact. They are Scotland's national animal.

Scan to learn how to build the unicorn and for more creative inspiration!

Unicorn

Monocerus Horsus

Unicorns are mythical, horse-like creatures with a single, spiraled horn, originating from ancient Greek, Indian, and Chinese lore

Unicorns have a lifespan of over 100 years.

What do they look like?

Fun Facts!

- have healing powers and symbolize innocence and stength
- have blue or purple eyes

What do they eat?

Unicorns are herbivores, with their diet changing depending on their habitat. They primarily eat grass, flowers and berries, but will occasionally treat themselves to marshmallows and jell-o.

